

Skin as a renewable vital organ

Only a very few organs of our body has the same capacity as our skin to regenerate and recover its properties by means new cells renewal. The result is a young and healthy skin.

Years of studies and development in Neftis Laboratorios, by means of the perfect combination of chemical exfoliant agents, allowed the obtention of a wide range of combined peelings.

All these peels have been designed to rejuvenate the skin in all aspects, as well as treating all its problems with specific targets such as whitening, luminosity, pores elimination, acne treatment and other multiple aesthetic applications.

To achieve the optimal results in chemical exfoliation treatments, all peels have been enhanced with the most appropriate active ingredients.

La piel como órgano vital regenerable

Pocos órganos de nuestro cuerpo tienen la capacidad única de regenerarse para recuperar las propiedades de las células nuevas, resultando una piel joven y renovada

Años de estudio y desarrollo han permitido a Neftis Laboratorios, mediante la perfecta conjunción de exfoliantes químicos, la obtención de una amplia gama de peelings combinados.

Estos peelings han sido diseñados para el rejuvenecimiento de la piel en todos sus aspectos, así como otros tratamientos específicos como el blanqueamiento, la luminosidad, eliminación de poros, acné, y otras múltiples aplicaciones estéticas

Cada peeling ha sido enriquecido con los activos idóneos para conseguir unos resultados óptimos en tratamientos de exfoliación química.
